Daniel Rose, Chairman of Rose Associates, Inc., a New York-based 85-year old real estate organization, has pursued a career involving a broad range of professional, civic and non-profit activities. Professionally, he has developed such properties as the award-winning Pentagon City complex in Arlington, VA and the One Financial Center office tower in Boston, MA. As an institutional consultant, his credits include the creation and implementation of the “housing for the performing arts” concept for New York’s Manhattan Plaza. Mr. Rose, who for a decade was a Director of U.S. Trust Corporation, now serves as a Director of over 20 Dreyfus-sponsored mutual funds and was a Trustee of Corporate Property Investors from 1972 to 1998. He also teaches, lectures and writes on a variety of real estate and planning subjects.

Mr. Corcoran joined Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. in July 1981, as Vice President and Manager, New York Region – Appraisal Division. As of January 1987, he assumed the position of National Director of the Appraisal Division. He is a member of the Global Management Committee of Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. In January 2006, Mr. Corcoran became the first Global Head of Valuation with overall responsibility for the firm’s valuation activities worldwide. Specific responsibilities include growing the practice globally, achieving a uniform approach to the valuation practice and integrating the firm’s global client management and business development activities. Mr. Corcoran oversees a professional staff of 550 appraisers, including 125 MAIs, and 101 RICs operating in 92 offices in 26 countries across the globe.
